13 applicable, except that it may be made after that time for cause.

14 (2) The motion shall be in writing and supported by affidavit which shall state

1 if the sole basis for the comment or instruction is the fact that the name of the witness 2 appears upon a list furnished under this section.

3 (5) TESTING OR ANALYSIS OF EVIDENCE. On motion of a party, the court may order 4 the production of any item of evidence or raw data that is intended to be introduced 5 at the trial for testing or analysis under such terms and conditions as the court 6 prescribes.

7 (6) PROTECTIVE ORDER. Upon motion of a party, the court may at any time order 8 that discovery, inspection, or the listing of witnesses required under this section be 9 denied, restricted, or deferred, or make other appropriate orders. If the prosecuting 10 attorney or the attorney for a person subject to this chapter certifies that to list a 11 witness may subject the witness or others to physical or economic harm or coercion, 12 the court may order that the deposition of the witness be taken pursuant to s. 967.04 13 (2) to (6). The name of the witness need not be divulged prior to the taking of such 4 may in appropriate cases grant the opposing party a recess or a continuance.

6 subject to sub. (4), advise the jury of any failure or refusal to disclose material or 13 under s. 20.550 (1) (a). If the person providing photocopies under this section charges

22 challenging the jurisdiction or competency of the court or the timeliness of a petition 23 filed under s. 980.02 shall be filed within 10 days after the court holds the probable 24 cause hearing under s. 980.04 (2). Failure to file a motion within the time specified

1 in this paragraph waives the right to challenge the jurisdiction or competency of the 2 court or the timeliness of a petition filed under s. 980.02.

3 (b) Notwithstanding s. 801.11, a court may exercise personal jurisdiction over 4 a person who is the subject of a petition filed under s. 980.02 even though the person 5 is not served as provided under s. 801.11 (1) or (2) with a verified petition and 6 summons or with an order for detention under s. 980.04 (1) and the person has not 7 had a probable cause hearing under s. 980.04 (2).

8 (2) EVIDENCE OF REFUSAL TO PARTICIPATE IN EXAMINATION. (a) At any hearing 9 under this chapter, the state may present evidence or comment on evidence that a 10 person who is the subject of a petition filed under s. 980.02 or a person who has been 11 committed under this chapter refused to participate in an examination of his or her 12 mental condition that was being conducted under this chapter or that was conducted 13 before the petition under s. 980.02 was filed for the purpose of evaluating whether 14 to file a petition.

15 (b) A licensed physician, licensed psychologist, or other mental health 16 professional may indicate in any written report that he or she prepares in connection 17 with a proceeding under this chapter that the person whom he or she examined 18 refused to participate in the examination.

19 (3) TESTIMONY BY TELEPHONE OR LIVE AUDIOVISUAL MEANS. Unless good cause to 20 the contrary is shown, proceedings under ss. 980.04 (2) (a) and 980.08 (5) (d) may be 21 conducted by telephone or audiovisual means, if available. If the proceedings are 22 required to be reported under SCR 71.02 (2), the proceedings shall be reported by a 23 court reporter who is in simultaneous voice communication with all parties to the 24 proceeding. Regardless of the physical location of any party to the telephone call, any 25 action taken by the court or any party shall have the same effect as if made in open

1 court. The proceedings shall be conducted in a courtroom or other place reasonably 2 accessible to the public. Simultaneous access to the proceeding shall be provided to 3 persons entitled to attend by means of a loudspeaker or, upon request to the court, 4 by making a person party to the telephone call without charge.

9 or from an order denying a motion for postcommitment relief or from both shall be 10 taken in the time and manner provided in ss. 808.04 (3), 809.30, and 809.40. If a 11 person is seeking relief from an order of commitment under s. 980.06, the person 12 shall file a motion for postcommitment relief in the trial court prior to an appeal 13 unless the grounds for seeking relief are sufficiency of the evidence or issues 14 previously raised.

15 (b) An appeal by the state from a final judgment or order under this chapter 16 may be taken to the court of appeals within the time specified in s. 808.04 (4) and in 17 the manner provided for civil appeals under chs. 808 and 809.

18 (5) FAILURE TO COMPLY WITH TIME LIMITS; EFFECT. Failure to comply with any time 19 limit specified in this chapter does not deprive the circuit court of personal or subject 20 matter jurisdiction or of competency to exercise that jurisdiction. Failure to comply 21 with any time limit specified in this chapter is not grounds for an appeal or grounds 22 to vacate any order, judgment, or commitment issued or entered under this chapter.
23 Failure to object to a period of delay or a continuance waives the time limit that is 24 the subject of the period of delay or continuance.

1 (6) ERRORS AND DEFECTS NOT AFFECTING SUBSTANTIAL RIGHTS. The court shall, in 2 every stage of a proceeding under this chapter, disregard any error or defect in the 13 or is committed to institutional care, and the court orders detention under this 14 subsection, the court shall order that the person be transferred to a detention facility 15 approved by the department. A detention order under this subsection remains in 16 effect until the ~~person is discharged~~ petition is dismissed after a hearing under sub.

7 (b) If the person filing an objection is requesting discharge, the court may not

9 a petition under that section.

10 (6) The district attorney or department of justice, whichever is applicable, may 11 employ experts or professional persons to support or oppose any recommendation.

12 (6m) Subject to s. 980.03 (2) (a), the court, before proceeding under sub. (7),

5 circumstances of the behavior that was the basis of the allegation in the petition 6 under s. 980.02 (2) (a), the person's mental history and present mental condition, the 7 person's progress or lack of progress in treatment, and, if the court were to authorize 11 (bm) The court shall select a county to prepare a report under par. (c). Unless 12 the court has good cause to select another county, the court shall select the person's 13 county of residence. A preliminary decision by the court under this paragraph or

21 department shall consider the proximity of any potential placement to the residence 22 of other persons on supervised release and to the residence of persons who are in the 23 custody of the department of corrections and regarding whom a sex offender 24 notification bulletin has been issued to law enforcement agencies under s. 301.46 25 (2m) (a) or (am).

1 (cm) If the court determines that the prospective residential options identified 2 in the report under par. (c) are inadequate, the court shall select another county to 3 prepare a report under par. (c).

4 (d) The court may not order that a person be placed on supervised release 5 unless it finds, based on all of the reports, trial records, and evidence presented, that 6 all of the following apply:

7 1. It is unlikely that the person will engage in acts of sexual violence if the 8 person is not continued in institutional care.

9 2. The person has demonstrated significant or satisfactory progress in his or 10 her treatment.

11 3. There is treatment reasonably available in the community that meets all of 12 the following requirements:

14 b. The treatment will be provided by a department-approved provider.

15 c. The treatment provider has presented a specific course of treatment to the 17 department on a regular basis, and will report violations immediately to the 18 department, consistent with the treatment and supervision needs of the person.

b. To provide or allow for the level of safety that the court requires.

c. To immediately report to the court and the department of justice or the district attorney, as applicable, any unauthorized absence of the person who will be placed on supervised release from the housing arrangement to which the person has been assigned. This subd. 5. c. does not apply unless the person or agency that is providing the housing is a state or local government agency or is licensed by the department.

(2) The department shall file with the court any additional rules of supervision not inconsistent with the rules or conditions imposed by the court within 10 days of imposing the rule.

(3) If the department wishes to change a rule or condition of supervision imposed by the court, it must obtain the court's approval.

(4) An order granting supervised release places the person in the care, control, and custody of the department. The department shall arrange for the care, control, and treatment of the person in the least restrictive manner consistent with the requirements of the person and in accordance with the order for supervised release.

1 Before a person is actually released under this section, the court shall notify the 2 municipal police department and county sheriff for the municipality and county in 3 which the person will be residing. The notification requirement under this 4 subsection does not apply if a municipal police department or county sheriff submits 5 to the court a written statement waiving the right to be notified.

6 (5) (a) If the department concludes that a person on supervised release, or 7 awaiting placement on supervised release, violated or threatened to violate a rule of 8 supervised release, it may petition for revocation of the order granting supervised 9 release. The department may also detain the person.

10 (b) If the department concludes that a person on supervised release, or 11 awaiting placement on supervised release, is a threat to the safety of others, it shall 12 detain the person and petition for revocation of the order granting supervised 13 release.

14 (c) If the department concludes that the order granting supervised release 15 should be revoked, it shall file a statement alleging the violation and a petition to 16 revoke the order for supervised release with the committing court and provide a copy 17 of each to the regional office of the state public defender responsible for handling 18 cases in the county where the committing court is located. If the department has 19 detained the person under par. (a) or (b), the department shall file the statement and 20 the petition and provide them to the state public defender within 72 hours after the 21 detention, excluding Saturdays, Sundays, and legal holidays. The court shall refer 22 the matter to the authority for indigency determinations under s. 977.07 (1) and 23 appointment of counsel under s. 977.05 (4) (j). The determination of indigency and 24 the appointment of counsel shall be done as soon as circumstances permit.

(d) The court shall hear the petition within 30 days, unless the hearing or time deadline is waived. A final decision on the petition to revoke shall be made within 90 days of the filing of the petition. Pending the final revocation hearing, the department may detain the person in the county jail or return him or her to institutional care.

(6) (a) If the court finds after a hearing, by clear and convincing evidence, that any rule has been violated and the court finds that the violation of the rule merits the revocation of the order granting supervised release, the court may revoke the order for supervised release and order that the person be placed in institutional care. The person shall remain in institutional care until he or she is discharged from the commitment or again placed on supervised release.

(b) If the court finds after a hearing, by clear and convincing evidence, that the safety of others requires that supervised release be revoked, the court shall revoke the order granting supervised release and order that the person be placed in institutional care. The person shall remain in institutional care until he or she is discharged from the commitment or again placed on supervised release.

Rep. Staskunas only wants to address her 2nd point.

In 2 places (pp 42 and 50), the sub should be revised to specify that DOJ shall rep DHFS unless the agencies' have adverse interests, in which case DHFS shall be represented by its agency counsel or by an attorney that it retains.

The stripes are on their way back. There's one more possible change.

DHFS would prefer replacing this line:

(c) The court may order that a person be placed on supervised release if it finds from all of the reports, trial records and evidence presented that all of the following apply:

with:

When determining whether to grant or deny a petition for supervised release, the court must consider each of the following:

We would also like the sections the abdicate DOJ's representation of DHFS eliminated.

And, I think sec. 102 could be cleaned up. DHFS already has custody of these folks. And, I wonder if the least restrictive language needs to remain--based on legislative intent (I am not lobbying to remove that language, just posing the question).
